Privacy Policy Christ Church has created this privacy statement to spell out our firm commitment to individual privacy. The following discloses our information gathering and dissemination practices. Christ Church respects the privacy of its parishioners. We do not collect personal information unless you supply it voluntarily using the directory information collection forms provided by the church office or through some similar, voluntary means. Though it may be publicly available, we consider personal information to any information which can be used to identify you, such as your name, age, address, email address, telephone number, and family embers. Any such information collected will be entered into a database on the church's private computer network, which can be accessed only by church staff and approved volunteers. The primary use of this information will be the production of a church directory and maintaining membership records. This information will also be used to enable contact with you by mail, email or telephone. This information will also be used in the development and functioning of the various ministries of the church. Your personal information contained in the church's database may be changed, limited or deleted by you at any time. No personal information will be shared with any third party, apart from the Diocese of Minnesota, unless explicit permission is given by you in response to a request from us. The church directory is produced for the private, non-commercial use of parishioners and friends of Christ Church. This Privacy Statement may change in the future; you will be given thirty days notice before any change takes effect. If you have any questions about this privacy statement, please contact: Parish Administrator, Christ Church, 321 West Avenue, Red Wing, MN 55066 651-388-0411 christch8@msn.com
